
Clash Of Orions Giveaway

Posted by PointOfLight - 2008/04/24 13:14

Clickgamer has been gracious enough to supply us with a copy of Clash Of Orions to give away. If you don't know, this is a bundle that includes Orions: Legend Of Wizards and the expansion pack, Orions: The Second Age. This is a great game for both die hard strategy fans and strategy game wanna-bes.

To be considered for a chance to win, you must register on this forum and then post a reply to this thread. Technically you just have to post, but it would be nice if you'd tell us either what your favorite strategy game is right now (mobile or otherwise), or what you like / dislike about strategy games.

Only one entry will be given per registered user. The contest will be open for at least two weeks, and depending on participation, up to four. Basically, I'll cut it off when I feel like it :)

Hi there !!!

I really enjoy strategic games on mobile, and I wish there could be a true CIV game.

I can't play the freeciv version on my pocket, and there isn't any good CIV game on pockets :(

Thanks for this contest!! I really wish to win this game pack!!

CHEERS

PS: nice theme on the site! ;) I love joomla

Who-hoo! Our first participant. Glad to have you aboard, Michelangelos. I have to confess that I've never played Civilization (or any of it's many sequels), but from what I understand, Revival is a good interpretation of the game for the PocketPC. If you haven't tried it yet, you can get it here.

Wouldn't pretty much anything that's not Civ just be a Civ wanna-be :) I'm sorry to hear that you didn't like Revival. I rather enjoyed it, but as I said I've never played Civ. Hopefully something will come along to fill the gap for you.

Hi!

My favourite strategy game right now is The Quest by Redshift. I don't really know if this can be called a strategy games as it is an RPG, but in either case it's one of the best games I've ever had.

I also enjoy all the games by Moregames (who have made Orions), especially Enslave. I only have a demo of Orions thought, would be great to have a free version ;)

Hi and welcome to the forum! According to my calculations around 75% of people registered here would name TQ as their favorite game, so no surprise here! :)

So there are many TQ fans here? I myself am a really active member of 1src, catacomber.com with more.

I really find the game, as all Redshift games, incredibly good.

I saw the Redshift and Zarista links on this site. Also I have noticed that this site, as catacomber.com, uses Joomla. Is this site something of a TQ-fansite as well as everything else it is?

Can't seem to get enough of The Quest...

Actually, Cat helped us start this site, which is part of the reason we're using Joomla and why we have featured links for Zarista Games and Redshift. While there are definitely TQ fans here, this isn't a fan site. We're really about all things mobile, though personally I'm in it mostly for the games :)

I'm not really a TQ fan, though. More of a Legacy man myself. I do think Redshift rocks, though, and I'm looking forward to their new casual dungeon crawl game when it gets released. You can definitely expect to find a review of it here when the game comes out. If you don't know what I'm talking about, here's the info: Dungeoned. I hope they're able to keep to their schedule, because that means it should be out real soon.

Yes, I know about their dungeon crawl game. But why did you hide it?

I've got Legacy at well and think it's great. But I find TQ better as it has a better interface, graphics, battle system and RPG "feeling".

Cat helped you with this site? Well, I am experiencing problems here which I doesn't do on catacomber.com.

Currently I am writing this on my Pocket PC, an HP iPAQ 214 Enterprise Handheld. If I visit catacomber.com on my device everything looks good. If I visit this site, however, I am experiencing problems. First, the beckground looks really strange compared to on the PC. Second, I cannot read the text, as it has no white background or anything and the color is black (It looks good at my PC). Third, the reply, edit and so on, buttons aren't visible in any mode but the desktop viewing mode.

Fourth, I COULD NOT POST THIS ON MY POCKET PC, I HAD TO COPY THIS TEXT AND SUBMIT IT ON MY PC.

Visit this site on a PPC and you will see what I mean.

Oh, and to the TQ fans out there, be sure to check out my upcoming expansions which will be available on www.thequesthints.de for download soon. They are Terror's Returnal (smaller map, 4x4 regions) and Mersant's Revenge (larger map, 8x8 regions). The first one will be free and released within two weeks. The second will be commercial. It's release date is not set.

I'm not really sure what you mean about "hiding it" in reference to Dungeoned. I just provided a link to their web page. I tried providing a link directly to the information page about Dungeoned, but I unfortunately can't do that since they use frames.

I apologize for the site's performance on your PocketPC. I will see what I can do, but I'm afraid it has mostly to do with the template, which we did not create. We might have to provide a separate template for PPC browsing.

I submitted my previous post in this thread from my ppc and it's seems to be looking ok on my device. I guess it depends on the browser you're using, cause it looks fine in opera, although the site's appearance in IE mobile is far from good.

Eh... It has been five days now. Did you mean just mail the winner, or what? Or should you announce the winner here?

By the way, The Quest fans, check this link:

I did mean that I was going to post here. However, once I discovered that there were only two people in the contest (everyone else on this thread is part of the MWOH "staff"), I decided to write to Clickgamer and see if I could get two licenses instead of one. I haven't heard back from them yet, which is why I didn't post anything. I apologize for the delay.

You could have a look at PDA Mambot to provide some sort of an automated Joomla support for mobile devices.

Thanks for the tip, zehlein. I will give that a try and see what happens. I actually tried downloading it the day you posted with little success, but now it seems like I'm going to be able to get to it.

Okay, I finally heard back from Clickgamer (I guess my contact was on vacation!), and he said they would be more than willing to give each of the two entrants a license. So, what I need from you guys is to email me at epankoke at gmail dot com with your name and email, which I will forward on to Chris so you can get your Clash Of Orions. Just to confirm, the two winners are:

Randor244
Michelangelos

Again, I apologize for the big delay on this. Keep in mind this is our first competition, though
